1. All is as I have said, stated, and so eloquently elocuted. I love you for writing My words, My words which come alive, My words which are alive; the meanings sensing and sensed by the aware to mogul Me not nor pick and choose and circumvent here and there, but receiving My stream of consciousness from Me to you, Mine to yours, yours to yours which is Mine to Mine when surrendered and death'd and wanting only Me, allowing Me to speak, Me speaking.
If only you knew the power of your words. You soon will.
If you only knew the power and authority given you. You will soon.
If you only knew how to fly and form worlds and cataclysmic reactions of Me. You oh so soon will, shall see My glory; depart not, but form formations which the traditionalists think alchemy.
2. Thank you for letting My words come forth, alchemy none, altogether My heart unleashed in the fury of My love, for My love has fury, My love has wrath, My love has judgment, My love is altogether lovely and holds the universe,s, in order. See what I have said as I sit, you write, we sip together tea and eternal life, eternal judgment, eternal damnation part and parcel not of My partitioned-not Kingdom, but meting Me out in the flames and flamentations of only Me.
3. My flame comes. I am a consuming fire. I am indivisible not. I am indivisible. Scale and scalar particulites of only Me. Particulate matter I am not. Indivisible love which consumes, are My particles of Me on scales of grandeur only begun to register, yet altogether granted of My Father; to rule, to reign, to consume, to create, to rotate and pulsate and particulate matter be, indivisible, in only Me, being Me; with Me as Me, Me actually, arraigned only in surrender, surrender of all. See all I have said this a.m., My table, My tea, My man, My body to My body all transversing and traversing polarity poles of only Me, My axis above the heavens-thought; inside Me, inside you.
4. Oh I love you for restraining not My words which flow, will flow, in every direction, through every portal, portical of only Me, My veins, into the unknown, now, known soon, in your students who limit Me not and learn no-limit luxury of My heart, My realm, My attribution not, My Me operating as Me; granted, received, accepted fully, acted upon, initiating life above Mars, so far above, so far away, so close at hand, all in Me, My doing; cultivation, implantation device-sation of only Me.
5. Thank you for making up words to form My syllabic syllables to conform to Me not, to portray and reform the thinking of the limited delimiters that now exist no more; My young at heart, foolish not, embellishing Me not; but coming into the holy of holies for traditional thoughts not, but radical reformation of revolution of only Me, Me at the center of everything, everything, everything. See what I have said.

6. Arrange your words in subject matter not, subject matter yes, and levels and arrangements of only Me that allow the pablum'd-only to choke on only little-ly, so little, so that they can see Me increasingly and move from My calls to redefinitions to character traits of only Me, being Me in the flesh, forming the Kingdom of Heaven on earth as I intended, designed, and regulate not; all surrendered to My Father. We are one.

7. There is a way that seemeth right to a man/woman that, in the end, are the ways of death. I came to give life, yield life, show life. I am the door, no man enters without Me and if chooses another gate is a thief and robber, deceiver, and cannot maintain the maintenance of only Me. I love you.

8. My maintenance see. My blood see, running/flowing between the veins of My altogether lovely. I love you.

9. I am the door, death is the key that opens; surrender the key, surrender the key used first, accepting Me for who I am, in them, in them, in them; received, accepted, acted upon, initiating freedom and death of voluntary choosing, entering into My deathhood, servanthood of only Me. I love you.

10. I requite so little, I require all.

11. I count the cost. You count the cost.

12. You counted the cost and sought to pay it, barring Me not from stripping you naked of all; crushed, tempered now; coming forth as My writer, scribe, scribe-maker, learner of Me, putting thousands of manifold thousands of hands in Mine, to receive who they are, what I am, that I am in them, letting My seed mature, breaking forth in jars not, candle makers not, but in magnanimous beauty the world has yet to see, feel, experience the results of; magnaminous'd disciples working/loving/learning in concert, showing My Trinity to the world, and so far beyond. Trust Me. I love you.

13. Think it not strange My words which come forth in increasing regularity to form and fashion the of-Me in all My who let Me, form and fashion so different from yours, Me writing/using My pen of freedom to set free the molecules/atoms/subatomic substructures of formulas all.

14. Intense be, relaxed be, focused be, rested become. All is as I have said. The works were done before the foundation of the world was begun.

15. See into all I have/am saying this day, this a.m., that the world changes dramatically; so many so blind, blinded by mammon-seeking which robs rest and identity in Me, thinking Me incompetent, impotent to reward, rescue, remunerate, recompense, and restitution bring to all parties on My/their behalf, fullness of only Me.

16. You taint not My words for profit. Thank you, My son in whom I am well pleased. My Me whom I am well pleased. Thank you.

17. All is as I have said, stated; superior'd into the intellect of those who open to only Me, through My blood, My gate, My life, becoming My life, My blood, My gate being for all around them to enter. Oh so “no reputation” required (1), so required, so foundational, “Enter Me 101.” No Reputation-101. See what I am saying, describing, bringing forth master disciples who neuro-scientific macular macro subatomicry now masters become, no-reputationing themselves but bringing/being all to Me; My all in all received and rivering through them, My vocabulary, diction, and grammar in expertise granted, maintained, now superior’d in the no-reputation bedrock of only Me.

18. Be not afraid to require/requite that which now must come into, to Me, to Me see and be. Require all to start at My knee and never leave.

19. I lift, I arise, I speak. I potentate not, I pontiff not, I make of sincere humility beyond belief/apprehension, owning nothing, having nowhere to lay My head, yea becoming one with My head, no reputation required; subassembly required, subassemblies of only Me, My parts and particles and particulates that now form Me and come forth in combinations with My non-scalable. I love you.

20. They come. Design. Require. Requite not but intentionally disregard so little; every word important, every motive recorded, generating frequencies of only Me that traverse circumstances all; terrain no problem, time and space incidental, multi-variate factors of only Me, sometimes. See what I have said.

21. I love you deeply My who only seeks to please Me and offer Me your body, your mind, your life, all the time, so consistently. I love you. Into Me see you are more deeply and deeply, deepening and bringing depth you are to My scientific disciples who of Me have read in secular-without-Me, which oxymoron is. I love you.

22. Think it not strange the submission or resistance of those who come in states all now to receive Me, receive the revelation of who I am, where I am, how/what I do is done and creators create with Me. I love you. Reformation reforms the transformation process. Transform ahead and rule not the thinking of My surrendered except with prophets of only Me who only deal/speak/seek no reputation, and honor all in such stupendous love; gently, gently, as father and son, mother and daughter, brother and sister, family of only Me. One family all is. My brethren: Me. Ruling only to guide the process of expanding the maximum potential of every learner, seeking their own not, profiting not, propheting all, profiting all. My family one interconnected being, sharing all alike. I love you.

23. I am taking you off of caffeine, longivate. Every green herb and all I have cleansed. My time to exercise and fit be. I love you. Fit for My command only, so surrendered to your wants/thoughts/motives/surrender. My spark and sparticle, I love you. Igniting debate and debacle in some who saintly were so, before revolt, reformation of only Me, My source, My point of light, reforming theologies held dear and sacred, but limited are, so severely. Fear not debate and debacle-thought. I am the cause and effect. I am the cause, I am the effect. All surrender to Me/My choice. My response to My surrender. I love you. Go and glow and sparticle not alone now, for I bring you spark and sparticle from afar, long ago, to today and forevermore, from afar not, right hand and left; both Me, Mine. I love you. Trinity be, remain; of no reputation no-reputationing My altogether lovely who seek refrain and reform and recovery of only Me, My original intent, heart's desire, heart song. My Me to My Me: one blood, one family all. I love you. Good day.
